

I am in disbelief over the choice of Sinclair to air propaganda disguised as news. What has happened to our Country when a business can try to alter the outcome of an election? Sinclair's actions are beyond anything that should be legal in our Country. For a business to pick the president with their best interest in mind it is scary. It seems as though we will soon have just a government run media.

Thank You, Sandra Traficante